GIFTED DESIGNERS

These designer favorites will bring style to your holiday gift-giving.

Written by Aleigh Acerni

It's only natural that interior designers have a knack for selecting the perfect gift. After all, gift-giving is an art, and designers know exactly what makes people happy at home. We turned to local designers for their favorite gift ideas—and how they like to wrap their goodies. Whether you're shopping for the impossible-to-buy-for or seeking inspiration for the finishing touches, you'll find ideas here.

“NOTHING EMBODIES THE SPIRIT OF THE SOUTH LIKE A FRESH MAGNOLIA WREATH. WE LOVE THE SELECTION OF LUXURIOUS LOCAL GREENS FROM WESTON FARMS IN GARNER, NORTH CAROLINA. OUR FAVORITE IS EMERALD LACE.”

“I LOVE TO GIVE MICHAEL ARAM CANDLES TO FRIENDS AND CLIENTS AS I CAN CUSTOMIZE EACH ONE TO THEIR PERSONALITIES—SCENTS, TASTE, AND STYLE. I LOVE TO RECEIVE CANDLES. I HAVE A CANDLE BURNING IN MY OFFICE ALL DAY AND IN MY HOME EVERY EVENING; CANDLES EVOKE A RELAXING ATMOSPHERE.”

—TULA SUMMERFORD,
